Gambling Management Plan

Australian Hotel,
Young NSW
LIQH400122721

24 May 2022

1. Background

Gambling is an enjoyable pursuit for many Australians as an individual freedom, with the vast majority of people participating with minimal harm. Around one in two adults in NSW Gamble.

In the 12 months to February 2019, 53% of the NSW Adult population participated in some form of gambling activity.

In NSW, less than 1% of the adult population are classified as problem gamblers.

However, it is also apparent that a small proportion of the community have significant problems with gambling and that the impact of these problems can extend beyond the individual to their family and community.

There are strategies and actions the Hotel can employ to assist in minimising the negative impact of EGM in the community.

These strategies should aim to preserve the benefits and individual rights to use poker machines, whilst at the same time employing measures to reduce the impact of harm experienced by gambling, especially problem gamblers.

This Gambling Management Plan outlines a range of strategies adopted by the Hotel to assist with minimizing the harm from Electronic Gaming Machines, TAB, and Keno facilities operated at the Australian Hotel, Young ("the Hotel").

21. Purpose

The purpose of this plan is to enact the principles of the Gambling and Gaming Machine Policy on how to minimise the harms associated with gambling in the Hotel.

22 Scope

This plan recognizes that there are a range of legal gambling opportunities available to the community including other lotteries, wagering (racing or sports betting) and online gambling.

This plan is focused on gaming machines, TAB and KENO available at the Hotel only.

2. Young Region

(SA2) Community

- b) Minors do not enter the gaming room, or play gaming machines.
- c) Monitoring for persons who have self excluded from the Hotel or the Gaming Room.

- d) Engaging with customers and understanding the regular patrons. Building relationships to better understand the patrons who enjoy gaming, and persons who may be at risk of problem gambling.

Knowing your customers provides hosts with an opportunity to create a culture of gaming harm minimization.

- e) Assisting patrons to contact a problem gambling counselling officer if required.
- f) Assisting patrons who choose to self-exclude from either the whole Hotel or the Hotel's Gaming room.
- g) Assisting patrons to self-exclude using the Multi-Venue Self Exclusion portal from Game Care.

42 TAB training.

The Hotel offers TAB facilities for patrons, and works closely with TAB to make sports betting an enjoyable pastime for the patrons.

All staff involved in TAB must hold a NSW Responsible Conduct of Gaming qualification, and complete the TAB course prior to operating a TAB terminal.

The course provides additional information about identifying problem gamblers specific to the sports betting industry. The course provides basic training on preventing minors from accessing gambling facilities and AML/CTF Fundamentals.

The Hotel has a AML/CTF program in place.

4.3 Responsible Gaming Officer (Gambling Contact Officer)

The Licensee shall ensure that one Responsible Gambling Officer (Gambling Contact Officer), being a staff member who holds a current RCG certificate, is on duty and monitoring the gaming machines of the venue whenever gaming machines are operating.

1. The Officer's primary duties are to:-
 - (a) maintain the gambling incident register;
 - (b) make reasonable efforts to identify gaming machine players who display or engage in problematic gambling behavior.
2. If any gaming machine player displays or engages in multiple problematic gambling behaviour as outlined in the Authority's Guideline, during a single trading day, then the Officer must (at least once during that trading day):-
 - (a) request that the player take a break from gaming machine play until the close of trade on that day or night (noting that a player who complies with a request to take a break may remain on the premises and consume other goods and services);
 - (b) provide information about the self-exclusion scheme offered at the premises (being the scheme available pursuant to s. 49 of the Gaming Machines Act 2001) and ask whether the player wishes to participate in that scheme;
 - (c) provide information about and access to problem gambling counselling.
3. This condition is not breached by:-
 - (a) a Responsible Gambling Officer (Gambling Contact Officer) undertaking additional duties, so long as such duties do not detract from the Officer's duties; or
 - (b) the absence of the Officer from the gaming machine areas, where such absence occurs as reasonably required in the ordinary course of their other duties.
4. At all times, the Duty Manager or other senior manager responsible for gaming machine operations will assist the Responsible Gambling Officer (Gambling Contact Officer) in carrying out the duties described in this condition.

4.4 Harm minimisation

- 4.4.1 Hotel promotes responsible gambling through the Responsible Gaming Officers who foster a culture of responsible gambling in the Hotel.

The Hotel's management and staff will be supportive of and encourage responsible gaming practices. All members of staff engaged in the operation of gaming machines have completed the prescribed Responsible Conduct of Gambling Course. A register of the RCG certificates and competency cards of all staff will be maintained at the Hotel.

Carrying out Harm minimisation

Staff are to become aware of the regular patrons who gamble in the Hotel, in particular, those who use the gaming machines and the use of the gaming machines generally by monitoring the gaming machine area, patrons and their behaviour.

Signs of Problem Gambling

It is up to staff to recognise the research has shown that there are indicators of problem gambling (particularly relevant to gaming machines but also may apply to TAB and KENO):

Frequency, duration and intensity

- Gambles every day
- Gambles for 3 hours or more without a break of 15 minutes or longer
- Gambles so intensely that unaware of surroundings
- Rushes from one machine to another
- Gambles on 2 or more machines at once
- Significant increases in spending patterns.

Impaired control

- Starts gambling when the venue opens
- Gambles through mealtimes
- Gambles after drinking alcohol
- Tries to win obsessively on one machine
- Stops gambling only when the hotel is closing.

Social behaviour

- Asks staff to not let anyone know where they are
- Is rude or impolite to staff
- Appears to avoid cashier and only uses cash facilities
- Avoids contact, communicates very little with anyone
- Stays in the venue to gamble when friends leave
- Becomes angry or agitated if someone takes their preferred machine
- Complains to staff about losing

Cash

- Accesses cash to gamble from ATM or EFTPOS on 2 or more occasions
- Asks to change large notes before gambling
- Borrows money from other people in the hotel
- Asks the Hotel or staff for a loan or credit
- Puts large winnings back into the machine and keeps gambling
- Leaves the hotel to find more money for gambling
- Appears to have run out of money when they leave

- Acts nervously e.g. bites lip continuously
- Vocally displays anger e.g. swears to themselves, grunts
- Kicks or strikes machine with fists

- Shows significant mood changes while playing.

Staff must use a common sense approach and if a patron exhibits several of these indicators they may have a problem and the manager should be notified.

Management should then consider asking the patron tactfully if they want help. Staff must use good communication skills so as not to exacerbate the situation particularly if the patron is aggressive and respect the patrons right to privacy and rights to make choices as an adult (18 and over).

If a patron approaches you and asks for help, you should privately provide every assistance including giving them details of professional services available and the self-exclusion scheme.

If a patron asks to be self-excluded immediately, give the patron the 'game care' or 'g line card' from the side of each bank of EGM's, ask the patron to leave the gaming room immediately and document this in the responsible gambling register.

In all cases staff must listen and assist. Every situation will be different. You are not trained counsellors and must point the patron in the right direction and be respectful of the patron's privacy concerns and legalities around privacy and rights to make choices as adult (18 years and over).

Staff will be encouraged and required to be additionally vigilant in maintaining welfare checks and patron interactions in later evening when problem gambling may have a greater impact.

Staff are to report to manager or 'Responsible Gaming Manager' any concerns they have with patron behaviour. Staff will conduct welfare checks by greeting the customer and using phrases like 'how is it going?' 'are you okay?' and if the patron is showing signs of problematic gambling, will encourage breaks in play. Suggest alternatives to gambling by asking questions / suggestions like:

'have you seen ???? movie, I saw it recently, you should see it also',

'have you been down to see the new greenhills development, you should do it?

'the local footy team are playing tomorrow, you should go and watch them'

' have you seen todays special in the bistro?'

Regular updates will be undertaken with staff providing feedback as to performance of responsible gaming in the Hotel including acknowledgement of staff performance in maintaining good practices.

Management will update staff on various incidents which may have occurred and how they may best be dealt with or improved upon.

- 4.4.2 The Hotel will maintain an active membership of the Australian Hotel Association (AHA) New South Wales and will continue to support its practices and procedures for gaming harm minimisation.
- 4.4.3 Patrons of the Hotel will be made aware the AHA's counselling services and of the government funded Gamecare counselling service by way of signage and staff direction as required.

4.6 Signage

6. The licensee must, at the request of a police officer or L&GNSW inspector, make any gambling incident register available for inspection.

4.8. Promote Local Support Services

Hotel is a member of the Australian Hotels Association, which provide access to the Game Care problem gambling counselling services and multi-venue self-exclusion.

Gambling help line cards will be displayed in bathrooms and on digital displays. The Hotels website and marketing material will include the message 'the hotel supports the responsible conduct of gambling and responsible service of alcohol'.

Hotel is a subscriber to the Game Care Self Exclusion program, and can assist patrons to enter into a Multi-Venue Self exclusion for all the venues in a local area or more as required.

The self-exclusion folder is regularly maintained by the Responsible Gaming Officers, who familiarize themselves with the persons who are currently excluded from the Hotels gaming room.

Any patron experiencing problem gambling and who asks to be excluded from The Hotel or the Gaming Room, must sign a self-exclusion agreement not to gamble in the venue.

As a provider of a self-exclusion scheme we will therefore:

Self-exclusion material will be handed to enquiring patrons immediately and if the patron requests to be self-excluded the patron will be asked to leave the gaming room immediately. Patrons that are assessed as showing signs of problem gambling or who enquire will be explained the self-exclusion procedure.

The Hotel offers ATM services in the Hotel. In accordance with legislation requirements, the ATM will not be located within the gaming room.

Further the ATMs located within the Hotel also display the appropriate signage to notify patrons of the problems associated with the use of its gaming machines and the Hotel has a policy of not cashing cheques.
