

Surrender RCG competency: declaration by NSW competency card holder

Before you complete this form

What this form is for

If you are a current NSW competency card holder undertaking the Licensee (LT) and/or Advanced Licensee training (ALT) and wish to surrender your Responsible Conduct of Gambling (RCG) competency, you should complete this declaration before you complete the training. Provide the signed declaration to an approved training provider for LT and/or ALT courses prior to training for upload via the RTO online portal.

If information is missing, we'll need to ask you to supply the required information to support the application. This may delay the issue of your new NSW competency card.

How to lodge this form

- Provide the signed declaration to an approved training provider for LT and/or ALT courses prior to training. Approved training providers must save completed form as PDF and upload via the RTO online portal.
