

Online liquor licence transfer: declaration by owner in possession

Before you complete this form

What this form is for

This declaration must be signed by the owner in possession when consent to the transfer of the licence is not available from the licensee. The signed declaration must be attached to your online liquor licence transfer application at Service NSW.

If information is missing, we'll need to ask you to supply the required information to support the application. This may delay our response.

How to lodge this form

- Save as PDF and attach to your online liquor licence transfer application where requested.
