

Before you complete this form

What this form is for

This declaration must be signed by the business owner (where they are not the original applicant) when the licence related to the business that they own is to be transferred. The signed declaration must be attached to your online liquor licence transfer application at Service NSW.

If information is missing, we'll need to ask you to supply the required information to support the application. This may delay our response.

How to lodge this form

- Save as PDF and attach to your online liquor licence transfer application where requested.
