Catholic Care, Nowra (Wollongong Diocese)

Located at 55 Worrige Street, Nowra. The organization provides a wide range of social welfare services in the Local Community as well as the Wollongong Diocese.

Counselling services are provided to children, adults, couples and families suffering from grief, loss, family and relationship difficulties, stress, anxiety, depression and changes in personal or family situations (eg. Drug, alcohol and gambling issues affecting family relationships).

The donation is considered to be of great advantage as it will assist the organization to extend the social development group learning activities to students in primary and secondary schools.

Definition of Local Community

For the purposes of this application the definition of Local Community is considered to include the township of Nowra. Nowra is a township with a population of approximately 9,527 persons with a median age of 42. There is an indigenous population of approximately 10%. The majority of the population are English speaking.

Nowra is located in the Shoalhaven LGA on the south coast of NSW. The LGA consists primarily of small coastal and rural townships. Nowra/Bombaderry, Milton / Ulladulla and Huskisson and Sussex inlet being its major centres. The LGA has an area of approximately 4,531.km².

The LGA population, already in the order of 100,000 is expected to grow by an additional 20,000 persons by 2036.

The township does not include the population of North, South or West Nowra and excludes Worrigea to the South. In terms of Socio-economic disadvantage the Shoalhaven LGA, of which the township of Nowra forms a substantial part, scored 954.6 – nowra being 815.3. Shoalhaven has SEIFA indicators that are generally below the State of NSW averages for LGA's.

However, the ABS undertakes a different exercise with SEIFA scores and ranks LGA's in deciles. The first being the most disadvantaged and the 10th the most advantaged. Shoalhaven ranks, as compared with all LGA's, in the fourth or fifth decile for each category of its SEIFA indicators. This method, rather than comparing on a higher to lower average score (where there are a number of very high scoring LGA's that skew such an assessment) allows comparison with all LGA's.

Dear Mr Dennis,

Donation by the Australian Hotel Nowra

I refer to your very generous offer to donate a sum of $10,000.00 to CatholicCare.

As a community organisation dedicated to delivering social welfare services, CatholicCare would be extremely grateful to receive your donation, and would plan to use the funds to extend the social development group-learning activities to students in primary and secondary Catholic schools in the Shoalhaven area.

CatholicCare provides a wide range of workshops to support the social and emotional wellbeing of students. Regular feedback demonstrates that school principals, staff and families highly value the group work provided by the School Student and Family Program across the Diocese.

All workshops delivered are evidence-based, linked to the PDHPE curriculum and evaluated at their conclusion. Group workers liaise with teachers to determine the best program to meet the needs of students.

Some teacher feedback on the group work provided to schools:

- CatholicCare programs support the SPB4L (School-wide Positive Behaviours for Learning) in language and concepts and also covers much of the PDH Curriculum in learning outcomes and indicators.
- Students have been observed using strategies taught and practised throughout the programs, eg. calming emotions, regaining focus using their amygdala ...
- The programs provided ideas, information and language that teachers could use to help support students when dealing with strong emotions, friendship issues, focusing and learning.
- I found the program to be extremely beneficial and worthwhile. The program supports our school focus around social and emotional learning.
- An excellent program that compliments work we do in the classroom. Something that we will continue throughout the year.

Thankyou for your support, and the opportunity to further assist the school students in the Nowra area. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
