

You people in office's worryabout 10pm take away sales, when your big supermarket's open their bottleshop door's at 9am. what about special's day when you can buy a carton of premix spirit anywhere between 65 to $75.00 carton at 9am in the morning. We club's and hotel's are not open at 10pm because of the cost of over the bar drink's when you can buy a carton of can's 30pack for $40.00 or 2 for $75.00 from coles or woolies. I live in the new england area and I could name 7 towns that pub's are closed by 10pm 4 night's a week.The anti social behaviour is bloody drug related when was the last time they shot a drug dealer, no it's easier to blame the publican.
