To whom it may concern,

I have lived in Sydney my whole life. I love Sydney.

I believe a complete relaxation of all alcohol restrictions should be put in place.

Most people, including myself, are responsible consumers of alcohol.

There is no doubt that alcohol can be a catalyst for anti-social behaviour and I appreciate the good intention for these restrictions.

I do also believe however that we are, on the whole, mature people who are able to act appropriately while consuming alcohol.

I, as a Sydney-sider, am saddened by the increased regulation of our lifestyle, particularly regarding alcohol.

Best regards
