Hi

Today I turned 30.. I am Sitting at Sake restaurant in the Rocks, Sydney with my partner who is 36. We are both law abiding adults who have never been in trouble with the law..its 9.38 dessert still to come, just thought wine is a little pricey here may grab a bottle of red on the way home instead.. But no.. Lock out laws have grouped us as untrustworthy hooligans who may inflict drunken violence to someone on the way home..

Thanks for nothing lock out laws..

Ps we were in Berlin recently and Sydney lock out laws are a laughing stock!
