Hi,

I am making this personal and professional plea to review the current lockout laws.

I am a singer, songwriter and a booking agent for DJs and live entertainment in Sydney.

In many levels I have lost all or most of my income.

- I now need to travel out of the cbd to perform
- very few venues want to book entertainment
- there are no dance floors left In Sydney
- no where to perform our original dance music
- no where to unwind after work. Musicians and hospitality staff often finish after 12:30am.

I am 40, I don't want to party all night. I'm just in a transistion from performer to agent and this isn't helping my new career as a booking agent at all.

Please consider revising this law and reviving Sydney's nightlife!

Best regards,
Bec Caruana
