To the Hon. Ian Callinan AC

I am against the lockout laws in Sydney for many reasons:

- killing local businesses
- destroying nightlife culture
- the fact that the NSW / Australian Govt revel in creating suppressive laws which inhibit personal freedoms e.g over-aggressive cycling laws!

But the one reason that sits above all else is the fact that Barangaroo and the Star are somehow exempt from these draconian licensing laws. This is quite simply outrageous. Why? Because the powers that be reward the big businesses of Packer et al rather than the everyday man trying to make a living for him or herself. Also, is the government trying to reward people for gambling by allowing them drink more alcohol for longer periods and therefore gamble even more?? How does that sit with you The Hon. Ian Callinan?

Yours sincerely
