Please re-consider what you are doing to this once vibrant & fun city.

The knock on effect of the lock-out laws is killing Sydney businesses, our nightlife and tourism.

I'm glad I had my fun when I was younger as there doesn't seem to be much to be had in this city now!

I feel sorry for the up & coming generations, and visitors to the city.

My husband opened a take away shop (Friggitoria) on Bayswater Rd in Kings Cross 1 year ago, what a disaster.

He & his business partner committed to the lease in Dec 14.

We have wasted our life savings on what would have been a great venture. There's hardly any foot traffic in the area compared to what was there prior to these laws.

It's so sad and very unfair to the many hard working, law abiding citizens of this city.

Yours sincerely,

July Cooper
