Hi,

I lived in Sydney my whole life, I moved to Melbourne for 1 year and it is really sad to say that they are the greatest city in Australia, it is really sad to say that they are miles ahead of Sydney.

It really sucks because I finish work at 1 am and then when i get to the city, I cant get into any venues.

Really dont get me started about the decline of live music, how are artists meant to start a career with all the restrictions.

Please wake up to yourself and start making tougher restrictions on the real problems in australia... like global warming... put the hammer down on that.

Make our city vibrant again... and not like pleasantville the movie.

Thanks Marco Delpopolo
