To whom it may concern,

I am writing this email in appeal to the lockout laws. These unfair and undeserving rules have not only ruined what was once an amazing city but is also destroying one of the best hubs for live music in the world.

There was once a time where I could get into 3 - 4 different venues on a Friday night to see some of my favourite artists and have a good time until sunrise. Thanks to a few idiots making stupid decisions we have been affected as a whole, and now if I want to hang out with my friends past 1:30am the only spot is a casino which is completely unfair and boring.

Whoever is pulling the strings here needs to re-evaluate what they are really doing.
