To whom it may concern,

Simply by googling 'Rudy Giuliani zero tolerance' online and you get a clear perspective of how to tackle escalating violence in Sydney (if any) whilst everyone can still have a good time. Residents of NY knew that if you go out with the intention of causing problems you were more than likely going to suffer severely and end up locked up for a period of time - thats how you handle crime in the most effective way.

Destroying small business and peoples social life is unacceptable. I should be able to drink alcohol whenever I please. I am not out to fight, I am out to make love and not war :) No pun intended!

P.s. Mike Baird needs to go, he is a corrupt embarrassment to Australian Politics. I wouldn't be as angry with the current decision if the Casino's were effected too, but the fact that you can smoke in doors, gamble and drink all night is plain right unethical and pure corruption.
