

 Reply all |   Delete Junk |  ...

Submission to the review of alcohol

DF David Foster

To: Liquor Law Review;

 Reply all |

Sun 3/04

Inbox

Before the lockout it was assault after assault through to the following day, with serious injuries and lives changed forever. With the lockouts in place the amount of assault has dropped considerably. I have spoken to many of the licenced premises who actually support the lock out as it has reduced the amount of incidents and injuries to staff and patrons, the premises have not been effected significantly financially at all.

Regards,

David Foster

Police Officer