Hi,

I just wanted to voice my objection to the lockout laws.

Punishing the public for the crimes of a few is heavy handed and unwarranted. The vibrancy of Sydney's nightlife has definitely declined. Recently I was in London where the police are just so relaxed and friendly. The bars were open late and its a great atmosphere. Here I feel we are over-regulated and the police have an attitude and are not approachable at all.

It's been sad to see so many iconic bars go bust under this draconian measure.
