

regarding post 10pm alcohol delivery

Jessica Grynberg [REDACTED]

Thu 24/03/2016 2:52 PM

To: Liquor Law Review <liquorlawreview@justice.nsw.gov.au>;

Dear Sir/Madame

As a regular Jimmy Brings customer I'd thought I'd write to you to say it's ridiculous Jimmy Brings are not permitted to deliver alcohol to people who do not want to get in their car to buy it (when they might be over the limit) after 10pm. The service is very convenient to people who entertain regularly at home. My husband and I do not want to buy copious amounts of alcohol - just in case we need more - we want to be able to order more - like we can order more gourmet food if we need it! We are part of a demographic that entertain at home ie children in bed, parents out the back. We are not getting hammered. We are enjoying a social drink amongst friends. We are trying to avoid the heavy drinking culture that takes place regularly on the city streets. Please reconsider.

Kind regards,

Jessica Grynberg