

 Reply all |   Delete Junk |  ...

Submission to the review of alcohol

MH Marcia Horvai

To: Liquor Law Review;

 Reply all |

Sun 3/04

Inbox

The loss of life and permanent damage to mainly young people starting out in life does not balance against the profits of the sellers of the drug alcohol. The cost to the community, both for medical treatment and the future of the youth affected, must be factored in. The holding up of procedures in emergency rooms in hospitals for other patients has been noted to have improved since restrictions have been effected in some areas.

Regards,

Marcia Horvai

Community supporter