

Submission to the review of alcohol

Christine Johnston [REDACTED]

Fri 25/03/2016 7:53 PM

To: Liquor Law Review <liquorlawreview@justice.nsw.gov.au>;

I now reside and teach in Queensland however I am formerly from Newcastle. I witnessed first hand the change in reduction of violent drunken behaviour when the authorities were forced to protect the general public from lawlessness. Up until recently I lived very close to a hotel that trades until 4am. I had to move as it simply was not safe to citizens any time after 11pm. I have witnessed wild mobs, police being attacked, ambulance personnel struggling to do their job-all at the expense of tax payers. There is absolutely no reason why our culture should support such degrading behaviour. All workers need to be safe.

Regards,

Christine Johnston

Community supporter