To whom it may concern,

I am of the belief that these liquor laws need to be removed. The suffering of Sydney's nightlife is not at the forefront of my mind but instead the development of a social and enjoyable community.

These laws are made in such a way that they seem to be focusing on punishing all rather than re-educating the minority of bafoons.

Without the vibrant nightlife all we seem to have is a bunch of party-goers focused on heavy pre-drinking and staying within suburban Sydney ruining Saturday nights for their neighbors. In addition to this it restricts society and creates an inability for a generation of 18-21 year olds to socialize outside of their own circles.

Please undo this stain on Sydney's nightlife and global reputation so that we can be back on track to providing a normal generation of humans.

Kind regards,

Dean H Kanakis.
