To whom it may concern,

As a resident of Sydney I am increasingly concerned about the dwindling vibrancy in our social and entertainment venues in the Sydney CBD. As free adults, we should be able to make our own choices as to when we go in and out of any given venue (up to the discretion of the owners and security personnel of course).

Additionally, as a resident of Newtown, I am very concerned about all the movement of the public who would normally go out to the CBD and who are now overcrowding the Newtown community.

I urge you to listen to our communities and change the laws to reflect our ability to choose our own entertainment venues and timetable them to suit our lives.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Keogh
