To: Liquor Law Review <liquorlawreview@justice.nsw.gov.au>;

To whom it may concern:

Having a vibrant city night life in the CBD and adjoining neighbourhoods in Sydney does not depend on the availability of liquor until the early hours of the night.

Late-night alcohol sales in establishment merely adds to an increase in drunken patrons who then noisily roam the streets, engage in vandalism and fights or other unruly behavior like urinating on store fronts, vomiting on sidewalks and the like.

I urge the City government to let common sense prevails over business greed and to limit the availability of liquor to reasonable hours — whether for take-away or alcohol sales on licensed premises.

Thank you,
