Hi there,

These lockout laws have had an awful affect on the Newtown community. People come here now on the weekends to get blind drunk in large groups.

This was a badly thought out idea that has made me feel unsafe for the first time in 20 years of living here.

I think its a big ask to get young bar staff to stop serving someone who has clearly had enough. It would be unpleasant for them but I see it as the only solution. RSA is supposed to be happening. But the bars themselves have a vested interest in getting money from people regardless.

I should be able to have a late night whisky with my friends at my age. Unfortunately I wouldn't even consider going out in my own community on a Friday or Saturday night after 9pm. Packs of staggering youth.

Help us before its too late.
