Hi, my name is Danielle and I'm a 21 year old girl from Newcastle NSW. I used to love coming to Sydney cause in our town we have lockout laws and it's ruined the night scene. I feel like young people can't even have fun anymore cause of a few silly people ruining it for everyone. I'm extremely responsible and I feel all of us shouldn't be punished for the ones who do make the bad decisions. I never go to Sydney no more cause of the lockout laws. I feel sorry for all the businesses that have lost revenue and had to close cause of these lockout laws. Having these lockout laws is just putting the drama and bad people on the street after hours where there is no one to help and break up the fights. If they were in clubs where there is security 24/7 they can actually stop people and help things to not happen. I say take away the lock out laws cause I know me and my friends won't be coming to Sydney for a night out again cause there is no point! Strongly support having no lockout laws!!
