As a migrant from Adelaide, i've seen the city that I fell in love with on our first date completely become a shadow of theirselves.

The 'city of villages' has become one big soul-less city who has lost her way. There is no personality. nothing to write home about any more.

This year i celebrated my 30th birthday. i went to dinner with friends, many of whom flew up from Adelaide. After dinner in Bondi we decided to go for a drink to continue catching up with old mates to be told by every bar or pub that we weren't allowed inside after 10pm. How embarrassing.

Please please please bring this city back to life.

Jess
