I am writing to express my SUPPORT for the NSW Government's lockout laws. Sydney now "feels" safe for families & older people to enjoy. The campaign to change the laws & return to the rule of drunks is being organised by a vocal minority supported by the liquor industry. The time has come for the Government to stand up to an industry that has too much power over young people, destroying their lives & those innocent people that get in the road of those affected by their products. I ask the Government to stand firm & keep the laws that are saving lives.
