I have worked in the CBD and with alcohol related crime for nearly 10 years and the lockout out laws are a success. Alcohol related assaults and violence are down and that is the most important thing. If the lockout laws are relaxed then assaults will increase again, it is only a matter of time. The lockout laws should be state wide and not just restricted to the CBD and KX precincts. Prior to the introduction of the lockout at 1.30am, transport home was a shambles, tempers were always on edge and intoxication levels were higher. There are not enough police and paramedics to deal with the chaos that alcohol related offences creates. Let alone hospital staff.
