As a born and bred Sydney-sided I am equal parts passionate and concerned about the state of our city.

So many of my colleagues in all facets of work have recently moved overseas- to cities that boast voluptuary vibrancy- London, New York, Berlin, even Melbourne!!

If Sydney had what Melbourne has, we'd truly be unbeatable.

Please don't ruin this city's reputation any further. We need to start rebuilding what we've destroyed. So much potential!!
