C'mon guys.

Seriously..... I am not one of the people out in kings cross (or anywhere but bed for that matter) past 1o 3am, however I do respect people that do want to be out later than 1am as I used to in my hay day.

Don't treat the adults of Sydney like kids who need to be told when and where they can go out and party. Stupid shit will happen, people will fight, some may die, however that is the risk people take by going out to places where people drink, the same way people take a risk every time they swim at Bondi. If monitored properly, it can be managed.
