Hi Team,

I am not going to go into depth as to why I disagree with these laws. I have done so on so many occasions and I am starting to get tired of repeated myself, not only that I'm sure thousands, if not tens of thousands will be covering my point.

These laws are not working and are destroying business as well as individual freedom to make one's own choices. Please do the right thing and abolish these ridiculous laws, to use Baird's words against him - They were 'Hysterical' laws put in place without any proper thought put into them.

Kind Regards,
