

 Reply all |   Delete Junk |  ...

Submission to the review of alcohol

SQ

Susan Quay

To: Liquor Law Review;

 Reply all |

Sun 3/04

Inbox

Action Items

Why do people need a drink at that time anyway? If people can't regulate their consumption then maybe they need some assistance so they don't injure themselves and others. A society that thinks it is okay to drink so much that they have no memory of the night and does not care for others will tear itself apart and cause tragedy for many.

The current lock out laws need to be preserved and applied to all areas where antisocial behaviour frequently occurs.

Regards,

Susan Quay

Community supporter