To whom it may concern,

I'm writing to share my feedback on the lockout laws and 10pm liquor store closing time.

These laws have had a huge impact on mine and my friends' social lives and the general culture and economy of my suburb  There are less music gigs, less small bars, less reasons to leave the house, support the local economy and many less reasons to love our city.

I tell friends not to bother visiting Sydney as there is no night life left. It's embarrassing that our government feels this is the only answer.

If I had known five years ago that this would be the state of Sydney, I would have moved to Melbourne instead. If the lockout laws and removed, I can confidently say it will be a catalyst for myself and many people I know to leave Sydney permanently.

Kind regards,
Carly
