Hi, my name is Amelia Sykes.

I just wanted to take a moment out of my day to send a short message to you regarding the Lock Out Laws, or, as I believe them to be, some of the most embarrassing and shameful laws to have affected our city to date.

As an avid contributor to the cultural community within Sydney I am devastated and appalled to have watched the deterioration of late night culture within many of Sydney's finest venues. These laws have not only affected myself as a citizen of this city and contributor to late night culture, but multiple close friends of mine who have been put out of work due to venue closure and staff layoffs.

The city now has very little to offer as a tourist hotspot, and the fact that the cities Casino's stand unaffected is baffling and enraging.

Do something about it before it is too late.

Amelia
