HELLO,

I'm writing this email from my new home, London. It is such a shame to see what has happened to the nightlife and culture of what I consider to be the best city in the world, Sydney. We need to do the following:

- Remove the lock out laws
- Reduce the overbearing police presence, we are adults treat us like them
- Remove alcohol free zones, let people drink on the streets. You can do it here in London, nobody has any issues
- Encourage investment in small bars, the smaller the bar the lesser the chance of violence
- Avoid the super clubs, they attract the wrong type of people who are looking for trouble

Don't let this city become a ghost town, me and family have every intention of returning to Sydney and we hope the great night life and culture can be saved.

Regards,

Nick
