

gambling, pokie suicide and domestic violence - not late night dancing.

Robinson Vignes [REDACTED]

Wed 30/03/2016 2:05 PM

To: Liquor Law Review <liquorlawreview@justice.nsw.gov.au>;

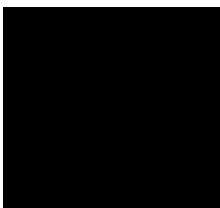

To whom it may concern,

As a former resident of Potts Point for 3 years and a former Manager of the Sugarmill Hotel ( Maybe you know Sweethearts Rooftop BBQ, I helped open that bad boy) I'm writing to you to express the frustration that myself, and my working peers have felt over the past two years having our nightlife taken away because of the actions of a minority of mindless dolts.

I understand the pain, anger and desire to prevent alcohol related violence as a very good friend of mine "Fady" was the poor recipient of a cowards punch whilst working at Bar 333 on George Street, resulting in him being in a coma and having a part of his skull removed. Stopping a city from moving because of actions like these is not a solution, but a knee jerk reaction. As a government it is your responsibility to address the real issues hurting the fabric of our society, gambling, domestic violence and suicide.

Let the responsible majority of Sydneysiders do as they wish ( hint, Mike Baird you are not my mother/father ), start educating people from a young age that violence is wrong, hitting women is wrong, gambling causes huge societal issues and you CAN have safe fun, dancing and drinking past 1.30 am

Please feel free to use any common sense ( or if needed just call me on the number below ) and I can possibly go into further details about why this is making our city a joke on the international stage.

Kix Vignes

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

IMPORTANT: The information transmitted is intended only for the person or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or privileged material. Any review, retransmission, dissemination or other use of, or taking of any action in reliance upon, this information by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you received this in error, please contact the sender and delete the material from any computer.

PRIVILEGED - PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

This e-mail may contain information which is confidential or privileged. If you receive the e-mail in error, please delete it from your system immediately and notify the sender by e-mail or using any of the above contact details.