I believe the lock out laws have gone too far.

The issue is the clubs that promote and allow patrons to be overly intoxicated.

I work shift work. I finish work at 2am.

Once i would have gone out to the city after my shift finished. I no longer go into the area where the lockout laws are now.

I believe the clubs and venues should be the one penalised and not patrons. Yes people may over drink. But the venues are allowing this to happen.
