To NSW Government,

I want to start by saying I'm a mother of two young children who would not be spending my nights partying away in kings cross.

Closing the city down with the current lock out laws has ruined the wonderful Sydney atmosphere, vibe, and nightlife.

Unfortunately I am now ashamed of the ridiculous laws enforced.

I want to be able to go out and get a late night meal and a drink! I don't want to be stranded, without a cab and nothing in the city being opened (that's when I feel unsafe!). I want to be proud of our city on an international level where our city entertains with our wonderful bars and restaurants.

If anything, I'm for longer opening hours (24hrs) where you can get a meal at 2am in the morning. This will only contribute to curbing the alcohol problem. I want my children to grow up with a late night culture of food, entertainment, and small bars (not resorting to backyard parties in the suburbs where the only entertainment is alcohol).

Please revoke the lockout laws and show Sydneysiders some respect and trust.

I want to reiterate that I'm not a teenager or interested in clubbing all night, this is about making sure I live in city that I am proud of its culture, gourmet food, bar scene and entertainment.

Thankyou for your consideration.

Regards
Johanna WELDON
