

 Reply all |   Delete Junk |  ...

Submission to the review of alcohol

GW Grace Westdorp

 Reply all |

To: Liquor Law Review;

Sun 3/04

Inbox

The safety of everyone is paramount and takes precedence over commercial interests. They clearly couldnt manage the violence associated with alcohol before the lock out laws and returning to the previous arrangement is madness. The government also has a responsibility to evaluate and mitigate the long term health effects of binge drinking. As the mother of a young adult I am very glad that the lock out laws were instituted. I very much support the law and it's continuation.

Regards,

Grace Westdorp

Community supporter