To whom it may concern:

The lockout laws are a very sad situation. Sydney night life has been effected in such a drastic way that I had to change my career. I was in venue marketing and music bookings before the lockouts happened. The venues I was involved in were in the lockout zones. O'Farrell singlehandedly gave the night time economy a mighty hit under the guise of curbing drunken violence. The exemption of the casinos is absolute corruption; especially when there is a direct correlation between gambling addiction and domestic violence.

It's sad.

The NSW Government are a joke and our beautiful city is now a joke!

FIX THIS!

Sincerely
Samuel White
