PAGE 2: Part 2 – Key issues for stakeholder comment

Q1: The Lotteries and Art Unions Act 1901 aims to ensure that, on balance, Government and the community as a whole benefit from lottery activities. The Act seeks to protect players and the community by restricting who can conduct and benefit from lottery activities and ensuring that where such activities are conducted, they are done so fairly, with integrity and in a way that minimises community harm. Do the objects as set out in section 2 of the Act remain valid?

Yes,

If you answered no, explain why:
Adopt the Queensland model. Everything NSW had done over the last 25 year in this industry is so far behind Queensland. You need to take a leaf out of the book!

Q2: Do you agree with the proposed NSW model on page 10 of the discussion paper?

No

Q3: Is there another approach that might be more suitable for regulating community gaming and lottery activities in NSW?

The Queensland model

Q4: Do the requirements of the proposed model adequately address the risk of harm to the community that may arise from community lotteries and trade promotions?

Yes,

If you answered no, explain why:
Most of it applies but I still suggest the Queensland adoption.

Q5: Without reducing the integrity of the regulatory measures, what changes could be made to the make the application process easier?

As suggested before adopt the Queensland model. this will reduce in cost. Appoint a regulator - Clubs NSW

Q6: How can Government further assist organisations and businesses conducting lottery activities and trade promotions to meet their regulatory obligations?

We need to get out of the last century and get into this century. It works so easy the Queensland model.

Q7: In section 8 of the discussion paper, it identifies that the Act does not provide for a civil penalty regime for breaches of conduct of lottery activities. Should a civil penalty regime be considered?

No

Q8: Are there any other matters that should be considered in this review of the Act and regulations?

Align yourself with the successful Queensland adoption. It works well.
