PAGE 2: Part 2 – Key issues for stakeholder comment

Q1: The Lotteries and Art Unions Act 1901 aims to ensure that, on balance, Government and the community as a whole benefit from lottery activities. The Act seeks to protect players and the community by restricting who can conduct and benefit from lottery activities and ensuring that where such activities are conducted, they are done so fairly, with integrity and in a way that minimises community harm. Do the objects as set out in section 2 of the Act remain valid?	Yes
Q2: Do you agree with the proposed NSW model on page 10 of the discussion paper?	No, Tell us why: Like Victoria, NSW should not require a licence for Trade promotions. As long as the organisation displays their terms and conditions clearly for the promotion, this should be sufficient.
Q3: Is there another approach that might be more suitable for regulating community gaming and lottery activities in NSW?	Respondent skipped this question
Q4: Do the requirements of the proposed model adequately address the risk of harm to the community that may arise from community lotteries and trade promotions?	No, If you answered no, explain why: In terms of community lotteries, I believe that the proceeds should be a little less.
Q5: Without reducing the integrity of the regulatory measures, what changes could be made to the make the application process easier?	Application process is easy as it is. No change for this.
Q6: How can Government further assist organisations and businesses conducting lottery activities and trade promotions to meet their regulatory obligations?	Maybe provide additional explanations and highlight the risks of fraudulent raffles etc
Q7: In section 8 of the discussion paper, it identifies that the Act does not provide for a civil penalty regime for breaches of conduct of lottery activities. Should a civil penalty regime be considered?	Yes, If you answered yes, which of the current criminal offences, if any, should be addressed via civil penalties? Civil penalties in the form of monetary penalties should be considered.
Q8: Are there any other matters that should be considered in this review of the Act and regulations?	Respondent skipped this question
