PAGE 2: Part 2 – Key issues for stakeholder comment

Q1: The Lotteries and Art Unions Act 1901 aims to ensure that, on balance, Government and the community as a whole benefit from lottery activities. The Act seeks to protect players and the community by restricting who can conduct and benefit from lottery activities and ensuring that where such activities are conducted, they are done so fairly, with integrity and in a way that minimises community harm. Do the objects as set out in section 2 of the Act remain valid?

No,
 If you answered no, explain why:
 No it is a complicated and stops organisations doing things in the community. there should be framework to protect the community but not to limit activities within a community

Q2: Do you agree with the proposed NSW model on page 10 of the discussion paper?

Yes,
 Tell us why:
 Its clearer, it allows for small business and community to conduct activities for the community. when entry is free there should be no restrictions as the entrant is not out of pocket.

Q3: Is there another approach that might be more suitable for regulating community gaming and lottery activities in NSW?

other states have deregulated the lottery process - Victoria was the most regulated and its time that NSW becomes progressive in this space

Q4: Do the requirements of the proposed model adequately address the risk of harm to the community that may arise from community lotteries and trade promotions?

Yes

Q5: Without reducing the integrity of the regulatory measures, what changes could be made to the make the application process easier?

a better online application system SA's online system is user friendly

Q6: How can Government further assist organisations and businesses conducting lottery activities and trade promotions to meet their regulatory obligations?

by having simple instructions or a diagnostic tool

Q7: In section 8 of the discussion paper, it identifies that the Act does not provide for a civil penalty regime for breaches of conduct of lottery activities. Should a civil penalty regime be considered?

No

Q8: Are there any other matters that should be considered in this review of the Act and regulations?

Bring NSW into the future, framework in this space is important to protect the community. In small communities these small organizations become limited to contributing to their area in good faith because of a revenue raising activity that never makes its way back to the community
